EDITOR'S PAGE

TNC's Advisory Editor, Mrs. J. E. McMullan, of Warren, Indiana, passed away on March 13th, after a short illness. She had devoted most of her life to genealogy, having been an authorized compiler of Quaker records for the late William Wade Hinshaw for over twenty years. As a genealogist she ranked at the very top, and compiled a vast amount of data on her many ancestral families in North Carolina, not only for herself but for friends, relatives and clients. In later years, after retiring, she had the commendable forethought to see to it that her genealogical material would be preserved. The genealogical field has lost one of its most devoted and capable members.

Mr. William E. Hennessee, Sr., of Hennessee Studio of Heraldic Art, Salisbury, N. C. (see opposite page 256, December, 1956, issue of TNC), passed away on April 21st. He was an internationally known authority on heraldry, and his fine paintings of coats-of-arms are exhibited on walls throughout the country. Mrs. Hennessee, the former Mary Elizabeth Heilig, writes: "I am going to try to run the Studio as it has been run for the past twenty five years. We have an excellent staff of artists and I have all of the many records my late husband collected through the years." TNC wishes Mrs. Hennessee much success in continuing this very interesting and worthwhile work.

TNC regrets that it is impossible to answer, or even acknowledge, all of the many letters received. Some of the correspondence is the result of TNC being mailed late in spite of efforts to the contrary. The December, 1957, issues were not mailed until January 23rd, and the March, 1958, issues were not mailed until April 25th. It is flattering that so many subscribers anxiously await each issue of TNC, but hereafter, to allow for lateness, kindly wait 90 days before writing to ask what happened to your copy of TNC! For example, wait until June to inquire about the March issue, until September to inquire about the June issue, and so on. That way, each subscriber will have received his or her copy, late or not, and a lot of unnecessary correspondence will be avoided. Copies of TNC that are incomplete, damaged, or lost in the mails will be replaced without charge providing you let us know.

ABSTRACTS OF ORANGE COUNTY, N. C., WILLS -- 1752 THROUGH 1800
TWO HUNDRED AND TWO EARLY MARRIAGES, 1752-1800, FOUND IN ORANGE CO., N. C., WILLS WHICH DO NOT APPEAR IN THE COLLECTED MARRIAGE BONDS

Mrs. C. W. Shields, 227 Vance Street, Chapel Hill, N. C., Chairman of the Genealogical Records Committee of The Davie Poplar Chapter, D. A. R., Chapel Hill, N. C., has compiled and published the two very worthwhile books named above. The ABSTRACTS OF WILLS includes the many deeds, powers of attorney, bills of sale, etc., as well as all the wills on record in Orange County Will Books A, B and C, and 20 pages of D, and covers, in all, 1752 through 1800. The names of all executors, witnesses, neighbors, etc., were included, and all names are fully indexed. Around 4600 names appear in the index to these 167 pages of abstracts, and therein lies the real value of the publication--the index to all names! Bear in mind that Orange County from 1752 to 1771 took in all of present-day counties of Orange, Caswell, Person, Alamance, Chatham, most of Durham, small parts of Wake and Lee, and the eastern third of Rockingham, Guilford and Randolph. In consulting the 28-page index in the front of the book, be sure to take note of the names (surnames are in capital letters) added along the righthand side of each page, and the addenda on page 28. Note that there are original wills on file in the Archives in Raleigh that were not recorded in the Orange County will books in Hillsboro, and wills recorded in Hillsboro whose originals have been lost. Compare wills up to 1760 with those in Grimes', Abstract of North Carolina Wills. Price: $4.50. Order from Mrs. Shields.

The TWO HUNDRED AND TWO MARRIAGES are proven by Orange County wills, 1752-1800, and are not included in the Orange County marriage bonds on file in the Archives in Raleigh, so are a welcome addition! The 15-page booklet sells for $1.00, separately, or $.50 when ordered along with the ABSTRACTS OF WILLS, above. Both books sell for a total of $5.00. Order from Mrs. Shields, address above.

WHO ARE YOU?

WHO ARE YOU? is the catchy and provocative title of an ingenious chart-book, cleverly engineered, artistically designed, in which to register permanently the names and other data about seven generations of your ancestry, eight generations, counting yourself. Size 9" x 12", 74 pages, beautifully printed on heavy paper, handsomely bound, with specially designed "apples" on which to record data on the various members of your family tree. Enough room for 255 names (254 ancestors and yourself!), with ample room for recording sources and historical notes on separate pages. Originated and designed by Mrs. Georgia Loy Woody, with Foreword and directions by Mary Blomeyer Byram, Genealogist. TNC recommends this ancestral chart-book to those who wish quality and beauty combined with usefulness--a book that will grace any bookshelf. Order from: Mr. Fred H. Knowles, President, Scottsdale Press, P. O. Box 506, Scottsdale, Arizona.

FORT FREDERICA COLOR BOOK
A History for Children

This 8" x 11" booklet has 16 pictures for children to color. At the same time, the pictures tell the story of Fort Frederica, St. Simons Island, Georgia. Prepared by Margaret Davis Cate and Albert Manucy, it sells for fifty cents per copy. It is Fort Frederica Association Publication No. 3, and is for sale at the Fort Frederica National Monument on St. Simons Island, Georgia, or may be ordered from Mrs. Margaret Davis Cate, Box 800, Sea Island, Georgia. Mrs. Cate writes: "I have had much correspondence with the Director of the Map Room at the British Museum and so I sent him a copy [of the Fort Frederica Color Book] with the thought that he would give it to his child or grandchild--but the letter says it is in their collection! The Color Book has arrived!"

THE KNOX FAMILY

THE KNOX FAMILY is a genealogical and biographical sketch of the descendants of John Knox of Rowan Co., N. C., and includes some other Knoxes. The volume was originally printed in 1905 by Hattie S. Goodman, and reprinted 1952 by her niece, M. Emma Goodman, of Mount Ulla, North Carolina. John Knox, the immigrant ancestor, was Scotch-Irish, being born c1708 in Scotland and moving to Ireland where he married Jean Gracy. They removed to America c1740 and are thought to have first lived in Pennsylvania before settling in Rowan County, North Carolina. James Knox Polk, 11th President of the United States, was a great-grandson of this John Knox. The volume contains many photographs, and a wealth of data on Knoxes and Knox descendants in North Carolina and elsewhere, and a partial index. Cloth bound, 266 pages, 6" x 9"; price: $7.50. Order from: Miss M. Emma Goodman, Mount Ulla, North Carolina.

THE SOUTHERN GENEALOGIST'S EXCHANGE

A new genealogical magazine that deserves honorable mention is THE SOUTHERN GENEALOGIST'S EXCHANGE, now in its second year. Issued quarterly, under the able editorship of Mrs. Aurora C. Shaw, the magazine publishes data from a dozen Southern states. A wide range of subjects are covered, judging from what has appeared in the first five issues. Here are some samples: "Formation of Florida Counties," "List of Georgia Court Houses Destroyed by Fire, Theft," "Upper Black Creek Primitive Baptist Church," "Sketches of Early Baptist Ministers & Georgia Baptists," "Family Reunions," "Cemeteries," "New Books & Publications," "What's My Line [Query Section]," "Family Bible Records," many family records, genealogies, biographical sketches, and so on. Perhaps the most valuable material so far published in the magazine are the indexes to the 1840 censuses of several Southern counties: Escambia, Hamilton, Jefferson, Leon, Madison and Walton Cos., Florida; Conway and Searcy Cos., Ark. TNC recommends THE SOUTHERN GENEALOGIST'S EXCHANGE to all who have Southern connections. Issued Spring, Summer, Fall and Winter, each year; nicely mimeographed; size 8½" x 11"; 30 to 36 pages per issue; price: $3.50 per year; single and back issues, $1.00 each. Address: Mrs. Aurora C. Shaw, 2525 Oak Street, Jacksonville 4, Florida.

POST OFFICES AND POSTMASTERS IN N. C. IN 1816

Contributed by Russell E. Bidlack, Ph. D.

On April 27, 1816, the Congress of the United States approved a resolution directing the Secretary for the Department of State to prepare for publication a register of all the officials and employees of the United States Government. In accordance with this resolution, a volume bearing the following title was published later that same year: A Register of Officers and Agents, Civil, Military, and Naval, in the Service of the United States, on the Thirtieth day of September, 1816; together with the Names, Force, and Condition, of All the Ships and Vessels Belonging to the United States, and When and Where Built. Besides giving the name and office of each federal employee, this register also gave the amount of his annual compensation and the state or country of his birth.

As might be expected, the largest single group of federal employees in 1816 was the postmasters. The vast majority of these officials, however, administered their post offices as a "side-line," frequently in connection with their place of business. These postmasters were "compensated by commissions on postages collected" and the amount shown opposite their names was the amount of their commission for one year. By comparing these amounts, one is able to judge the relative size of the communities which the post offices served. Fayetteville had the largest amount--$1535.57; Wilmington was second, with $816.87; Raleigh, with $554.84, was third.

Thinking that a list of the post offices in North Carolina in 1816 would constitute a useful source for genealogical and historical research in the state, the following has been compiled. It will be noted that in numerous instances the place of birth has been omitted. These omissions were explained by the Secretary in an "Advertisement" at the end of the volume. He stated that each department had sent communications to all employees asking for their places of birth, but that there had been a "great deficiency of returns" which necessitated many omissions. It was also explained that when the compensation for a postmaster was omitted it was because "the offices have not been established a year, or no accounts have been rendered."

There was a total of 203 post offices in North Carolina in 1816. It is apparent from their names, however, that many were located in country stores or private residences situated at a cross roads or in a small rural community. Unfortunately, the name of the county was not given so that in most instances it is impossible to determine just where in the state the post offices were located. However, a comparison of the 203 post offices in 1816 with the 1,142 post offices in North Carolina in 1947 reveals that about half the names appear as post offices in present-day North Carolina.

HERTFORD COUNTY WILLS AND ADMINISTRATIONS, 1760-1773

Hertford County, North Carolina, was formed 16 December 1759 (to become effective 1 May 1760) from parts of Bertie, Chowan and Northampton Counties. In 1779 Gates County was formed from parts of Chowan, Hertford and Perquimans Counties (approximately the western third of Gates was taken from Hertford County), and Hertford's boundaries have remained virtually unchanged ever since.

Unfortunately, courthouse fires in 1832 and 1862 destroyed practically all court records for Hertford County. Deeds date from 1861; wills, 1830; marriage bonds, 1868; court minutes, 1830. Luckily, clerks of court for a time were required by law to send in to the Secretary of State a record of all wills and administrations. Such a record has been preserved for Hertford County, from its first court, July, 1760, through February, 1773 (Archives, File No. S. S. 883).

Following is a record of Hertford County wills and administrations, 1760-1773:

Date of Court	Name of Deceased	Executors of Will	Administrators of Estate	Securities
July 1760	John Griffith		Hannah Griffith	Henry Hill & William Murfree, Esqrs.
July 1760	Joseph Witherington	John Harrell & William Witherington

RUTHERFORD COUNTY WILL BOOK A, 1782-1791

Rutherford County, North Carolina, was formed in 1779 when Tryon County was abolished and made into the counties of Lincoln and Rutherford. Rutherford's Will Book A, 1782-1791, contains not only wills, but bills of sale, powers of attorney, deeds of gift, depositions, mortgages, and so on. From 1779 to 1791 Rutherford County took in most if not all the settlements in the entire southwestern corner of North Carolina, including all or part of the present-day counties of Buncombe, Cherokee, Clay, Cleveland, Graham, Haywood, Henderson, Jackson, McDowell, Macon, Polk, Rutherford, Swain and Transylvania.

The first sheet in Will Book A is actually pages 1 and 2 of Will Book B (so this sheet will not be abstracted here). The next four pages are numbered 1, 1A, 2 and 3, and are followed by pages 1 through 58. Following page 58 are pages 4 through 23. Thus Will Book A consisted of two books, originally; the first book was made up of pages 1, 1A, 2 and 3 at front of Will Book A, and pages 4 through 23 at back. The second book was made up of pages 1 through 58 in the middle of Will Book A. Following is a detailed listing of the contents of Will Book A in the office of Clerk of Court, Rutherfordton, Rutherford County, North Carolina:

512. "BILL ARP," BROWN, DANIEL, HUNTER, HUTCHINS, LEWIS, LINTON, MIMS, MONTGOMERY, PEEPLES, PINTARD, SMITH, SPARKS, VARDEMAN, WHATLEY; Pa., Va., N. C., S. C., Ga., Miss. - Samuel Linton left N. C. at beginning of Rev. War and settled in Abbeville Dist., S. C.; served as Commissary Officer (Quartermaster) in Wade Hampton's Regiment, Sumpter's Brigade, S. C. Troops (see Sally's History of S. C., 147, 139 - Rev. Claims. A number of his descendants are DAR members due to his record). Samuel Linton married, first, Ruth Brown, said to have been from Pennsylvania, and a sister of a Revolutionary General Alexander Brown (desire proof of both statements) (Pennsylvania DAR lists no Genl. Alexander Brown!); married, second, Elizabeth Montgomery, who signed papers in connection with his estate. The application of Mrs. Frederick Jones Vardeman of Rosedale, Miss., for DAR membership has a notation that Samuel Linton, Sr., "married both wives in Mecklenburg Co., N. C., the father of Elizabeth Montgomery being John Montgomery" (correct name Isabel Amanda Montgomery--would like this proven or disproven). Father of Samuel believed to be Edward Linton of Rocky Creek, Mecklenburg Co., N. C., died 1776, whose wife was Rebecca. If correct, would like parents of Edward and Rebecca. Also, where Edward and Rebecca are buried. Who were parents of Ruth Brown, first wife of Samuel Linton?

Drury Hutchins, believed born in Va., moved to N.C., served as a captain in S. C. during Revolution; died before receiving land due him for services; his son Michael receiving them. A number of Drury's descendants are DAR members. DAR records give both Mary Lewis of N. C. and a Miss Pintard as his wife. Desire antecedents of Drury Hutchins, his correct wife, and the connection with "Drury." Said to be of Va. origin; Bible and DAR applications are confusing as to wives. My Hutchins lineage is: Drury; Michael; Judge Nathan Lewis Hutchins; Mary Octavia Hutchins (m. Maj. Charles H. Smith--"Bill Arp"); Hines Maguire Smith (my father). My mother was Sarah Jane Sparks, dau. of Thomas Hunter Sparks and Ann Linton, who was dau. of Dr. Alexander Brown Linton (wife Jane Daniel), son of Samuel Linton of North and South Carolina and wife Ruth Brown. (See the March, 1958, issue of THE SPARKS QUARTERLY for a splendid article, with photographs, on Martin Peeples Sparks and wife Elizabeth Whatley, and on Thomas Hunter Sparks and wife Ann Linton.)

Ornan and Judith (---) Whatley are believed to be parents of the Elizabeth Whatley who married Martin Peeples Sparks. A letter from Miss Anne Mae Mims of Augusta, Ga., who is compiling a book on the Whatley family, is to the effect that Ornan Whatley, Rev. soldier from N. C. (received a number of grants), b. 8 May 1751, N. C., d. 1 Dec. 1798, Ga.; m. Judah (Judith) from N. C., b. 8 Feb. 1751, d. 4 Nov. 1842, Ga. (would like data and place of marriage). Would like proof of Ornan's Rev. service, claimed above, names of his parents, and parents of wife Judith. After moving to Georgia Ornan and Judith Whatley lived in Wilkes County. John, Thomas & Willis Whatley appeared in Wilkes Deed Book, 1784-5; Ornan Whatley & wife Judith deed land to Phillip Hunter, Sept., 1785. Children of Ornan & Judith are said to be: (1) Elizabeth (b. 7-28-1795, d. 9-4-1870, m. Martin Peeples Sparks, 12-2-1810, he b. 7-18-1786, d. 6-8-1837); (2) Michael (m. Elizabeth Peeples); (3) Burrell (m. Caroline Matilda Hunter); (the dates given for Elizabeth & Martin P. are from the Bibles, so correct). Why were the names Peeples and Hunter used as given names by the Sparks family? A Michael Whatley obtained a land grant in Orange Co., N. C.; a Michael, Sr., & Jr., appear in Greene Co., Ga., 1789; same family?
